

Little Night Music: A Composer's Salon with Benet Casablanças

The Catalan Center
at New York University
Spring 2010 Program

Wednesday,
February 24th at 7pm
Casa Italiana at NYU

To celebrate the NY debut at the Miller Theatre at Columbia University of contemporary Catalan composer, Benet Casablanças, The Catalan Center is offering "Little Night Music: A Composer's Salon with Benet Casablanças;" CUNY musicologist, Antoni Pizà; flutist and Artistic Director of Perspectives Ensemble, Sato Moughalian; and Melissa Smey, Director of the Miller Theatre. The salon will feature a performance of Casablanças's "Petita Música Nocturna" by the Perspectives Ensemble, and a conversation among all the participants in which the composer's musical oeuvre will be discussed in the context of the European and North American modernist traditions.

* In collaboration with the Miller Theater at Columbia University